Answer these 5 questions and find out if the Family Makeover Solution is right for you!

Do you always feel as though:

- You're running late and rushing to do things at the last minute?
- You can never find anything because your home is a disaster zone?
- Your spouse and/or kids aren't pitching in to help around the house?
- You are exhausted from running from one thing to the next?
- You never have quality time with your family — let alone time for yourself?

If you answered "YES," follow me to the next page!

With the Family Makeover Solution...

- Empower each member of your family to feel like a valued member of the team
- Reduce stress by getting organized and keeping up with housework
- Know what matters most to you and your family, and live accordingly
- Encourage family members to be their personal best and share their skills, resources and love with family, friends and the community
- Have more time for fun and enjoy life
- Give each member of the household (including you!) the room and time to grow in mind, body and spirit

Here's what the program includes:

- Initial phone consultation
- Online survey where you will evaluate the areas of strengths and weaknesses within your household
- An in-home session with the heads of household to analyze the survey results and co-develop an action plan
- A Family Makeover Plan binder with action plans identified, action steps for problem areas, organizing tips and templates to get the makeover started
- A half-day, hands-on session with me when we'll review the Family Makeover Plan and roll up our sleeves to solve your biggest household problem areas
- Two 30-minute "Stay on Track" coaching calls within two weeks of the half-day session to keep your progress moving forward!
